

Plans, develops, and directs an Agency-wide Records Management Program encompassing the creation of records, their maintenance, organization, and use in the conduct of current business, and the transfer, preservation, destruction, or other disposition of those records not currently required or seldom used.

2 February 1998

